

. The present motion is taken out by the plaintiff for an injunction restraining the defendant from entering into the suit premises of Flour Mill situated at 5th Road, Plot No. 60, Khar, Mumbai 400 052 and further relief is sought that they should be directed to pay to the plaintiff Rs. 15,000/- per month in respect of the collection at the counter of the flour mill. Receiver is also sought in respect of the said flour mill. It is the case of the plaintiff that originally the father of the plaintiff was running the business of the flour mill and thereafter he was running the business of the flour mil. It is the further case of the plaintiff that the defendant no. 2 who is the brother of the plaintiff was assisting in respect of the said business. The defendant no. 3 is the tenant of the premises. It is the case of the plaintiff that the defendant nos. 1 and 2 were jointly running the business of the flour mill. In support of his contention he has relied upon the receipts which are supposed to have been issued by defendant no. 3 as tenant. The said receipts indicate only payment of Rs. 800/-. On perusal of the receipt it is not possible to indicate that the plaintiff was running the business in the said premises and he was in possession thereof. No other documents are produced by the plaintiff in the present case. In that view of the matter, it is not possible to grant interim order of the nature of a mandatory injunction permitting the entry of the plaintiff in the suit premises at this juncture. Motion dismissed. No order as to costs.
